

2. CHILDREN AND WORK

Around 1916, two girls were photographed in the park, using washboards and tubs, while a boy walks past with an adult.

1. Discuss what you think a day in the girl's life might be like.
2. Discuss what you think a day in the boy's life might be like.
3. Why do some children have to work and others do not?
4. Is it ever right that children have to work?

Make a sketch of what these girls might do instead of laundry.
